

Affiliate Membership

An Affiliate Member is an employee or partner of a member company who wishes to become a member and receive industry benefits and information. The Affiliate membership enables employees of Builder and Associate members to reap the reward of GBA membership, at a fraction of the cost of a full membership.

Requirements:

- Must join the same local association as their employer
- The company name and address of Affiliate Member must match the name and address of their employer
- Affiliate Members will have their own anniversary date; however, if the primary member cancels or is cancelled due to non-payment, the Affiliate Member would also be cancelled with no refund.

Benefits:

- Listing on the GBA website with associated company member
- Listing in GBA printed Membership Directory
- Receive all event notices, including membership meetings
- Receive Builder Update magazine
- Receive discounts from NAHB's Member Advantage on services and publications
